Foreign nationals may enter Canada or remain in Canada without a study permit to attend a course or program of study of 6 months' duration or less [R188(1)(c)]. This exemption helps to facilitate access to short-term courses, regardless of their subject matter. The course or program of study may be part-time or full-time and should be completed within the period authorized upon entry. For more information, please visit: Study permits: Who needs a study permit - Canada.ca.

It is possible an applicant may benefit from the following Public Policy - Temporary public policy to allow foreign nationals with valid work permits to study without a study permit - Canada.ca.

We hope that this information is helpful to you.

Dear Officer,

I would like to know, if an individual in Canada on work permit (open or closed work permit) wants to do a part time study of a program that is less than 6 months, from a Private or DLI college. In that case, is a study permit required?

Regards,
